MADISON, Wis. — Ex-Marathoner Sam Jameson can't run from her problems anymore. Even the hot yoga classes she joined to help her conquer paralyzing grief, loneliness, and guilt over a shameful past have thrown her off balance as she discovers one of her new, cautiously forged friends is now stalking her. As the heat rises, Sam realizes her stalker —a new mentor?, lover?, friend?—actually wants her dead. If she can't discern ally from adversary, corpse pose will take on a whole new meaning.

Steaming with captivating characters and suspenseful plot twists, author Lesa Knollenberg's debut Sam Jameson novel, Corpse Pose, bends through yoga pose-inspired chapters and concludes with a surprising "corpse pose" twist.

Set in the Midwest yoga mecca of Madison, Wisconsin, Corpse Pose is perfect for a summer read—or a yoga retreat. Readers will be guessing all the way to the final pose as they revisit Sam's difficult past to uncover the truth of her frightening present.
